Privacy Notice

(how we use school workforce information)

Applicable to teaching staff, support staff, student teachers, volunteers, governors & staff in College supplied by third party companies.

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, address, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- special categories of data including characteristics information such as gender, age, ethnic group
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- relevant medical information
- Biometric information (thumbprints)
- Performance information (lesson observations, performance management, etc)
- CCTV

Why we collect and use this information

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid, pension contributions, national insurance, student loans, etc
- for the protection of staff and students

The lawful basis on which we process this information

We process this information under the basis of 'Contract', 'Legal obligation' and 'Public task' (Article 6 of GDPR). We may use more sensitive information about you (Article 9 of GDPR), race, ethnic origin under Article 9(2)(b) 'processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out obligations...' and in order to fulfil our obligations to the DfE. We process biometric data for identity purposes under sections Article 9(2)(a) 'explicit consent'.

Collecting this information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing this information

We hold school workforce data for 7 years.

Who we share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- Launceston College MAT
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- e-payslips
- ParentPay
- Parents evening booking system
- Educational websites, eg Kerboodle.

For a complete list of who we share data with, please see the College website:

<http://mat.launceston-college.cornwall.sch.uk/gdpr/>

Why we share school workforce information

We share workforce information where we are required to by law, where we are obliged to provide statutory information and in the interests of running a school (public interest). If we need to share information for other reasons, we will ask your consent first.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

We share personal data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins workforce policy monitoring, evaluation and links to school funding / expenditure and the assessment educational attainment.

Data collection requirements

The DfE collects and processes personal data relating to those employed by schools (including Multi Academy Trusts) and local authorities that work in state funded schools (including all maintained schools, all academies and free schools and all special schools including Pupil Referral Units and Alternative Provision). All state funded schools are required to make a census submission because it is a statutory return under sections 113 and 114 of the Education Act 2005

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

The department may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The department has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether DfE releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested; and
- the arrangements in place to securely store and handle the data

To be granted access to school workforce information, organisations must comply with its strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, email privacy@launcestoncollege.org.uk

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
